News Spread Among the Passengers.

The news by this time had spread

Neither Denied Their Identity.

ans who made the arrest tried to get incriminating admissions from the couple. Such efforts are contrary to British law and the prisoners volun-

Miss Leneve Again in Proper Garments.

subjects and though Crippen seemed indifferent to the fact, of which he was aware, that the pilot was putting out in a boat at that time and might be accompanied by detectives. He re-accompanied by detectives. He re-marked, however, on the number of men aboard, saying. There seems to be too many pilots aboard. Then we and myself were standing on the lee side of the vessel, a little forward of the main companionway. The purser waited at the top of the ladder and pointed out the dentist to Dew. The inspector walked quickly to up him and in a moment it was all over.

Another eye-witness described the arrest as follows:

"'Are you Dr. Crippen?"
"Crippen replied 'Yes,' and Dew said,
'You're arrested on a charge of murder and the mutilation of the body of an unknown woman."

Detective McCarthy stepped forward and snapped the handcuffs on the den-moustache, to the photographs of the doctor that have been appearing lately. The only jaunty touch in his costume was a light colored necktic.

How Miss Leneve Was Trapped in Her

Detective Denie gave the most interesting account of how Miss Leneve was trapped in her cabin. "As soon as Crippen had been taken in charge by McCarthy," he said, "Inspector Dew and myself went to cabin No. 5, where we were informed that Miss Leneve was reading a magazine. Dew gave was reading a magazine. Dew gave instructions for a stewardese to stand ready with a glass of brandy to be administered in case the girl fainted, then he entered the cabin, followed by

Cabin.

tits's wrists as a safeguard, said

myself.

teered no information

CRIPPEN, I WANT YOU!" CALMLY SAID INSPECTOR DEW

End of Cae of the Most Sensational Flights in Recent Criminal Annals

SCOTLAND YARD MAN IN PILOT'S GARB

Boarded the Canadian Facific Liner Montrose at Father Point Early Sunday Morning, Walking Directly to the Fugitive Dentist, Who Was Standing By the Rail Talking With the Ship's Surgeon-Miss Leneve the Dentist's Sten-grapher, Still Dressed as a Boy Found in her Stateroom-Crippen Eroken in Spirit While the Cirl is in Pitiable Condition.

Father Point, Que., July 31—Dr. tographers swarmed aboard. Crippen Hawley Harvey Crippen and Ethel they found handcuffed in his state-clara Leneve, his stenographer, who fled from London after the disappear-the care of a physician in No. 5. fled from London after the disappear-ance of Belle Elmore, the doctor's wife, were arrested here today abound the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose at the command of Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard.

Long Sought Fugitives Identified. The identification of the long sought fugitives on board the fog shrouded steamer by the English detective who had raced across the Atlantic ahead of the Montrose, marked the culmination of one of the most sensational flights in recent criminal annals. Accompanied by two Canadian officers he companied by two Canadian officers he boarded the vessel at 8.30 o'clock this morning and fifteen minutes hater both man and girl were locked in their staterooms. Crippen broken in spirit but mentally relieved by the relaxed tension; the girl, garbed in looy's clothes sobbing hysterically. They were no longer the Rev. John Robinson and son as booked from Antwerp on July 20. Will Be Taken Back to England Next Thursday. After brief delay the Montrose contimed her 160-mile journey down the river towards Quebec, where juil awaited the pair. Crippen is charged with the murder of an unknown wo-man, believed to have been his actress The girl is held as an acces-in charge of inspector Dew they be taken back to England, for trial, on the Royal line steamship Royal George leaving Quebec next Thurs-

Sleepless Night at Wireless Operator's

Seldom has there been a scene sur-Seidom has there been a scene surrounding the pursuit of a criminal so pregnant with dramatic features as that enacted off this little settlement this morning. Inspector Dew had spent a sleepless night at the Marconi operator's side, communicating through the fog with the liner which have been married women he somethe through the fog with the liner which hore the man and woman he sought. The man had deceived him in London by fleeing the city with the mystery of Belle Elmore's dissapearance unsolved and a strong personal feeling entered into the case accentuating the entered into the case accentuating the decision of the case accentuating the in my walk. We talked on various subjects and though Crippen seemed allowent to the fact of which he was

Arrival of the Montrose.

At 4.30 a m. the approaching ship's whistle was heard above the bellowing of the Father Point foghorn. Like a giant alarm clock it awakened the nervous villagers and the expectant newspaper men who dressed hastliy resumed our conversation.
"The detectives climbed awkwardly and waited in a drizzling rain for the liner's arrival. The minutes and the hours passed with tantalizing slow-ness. Inspector Dew's Impatience increased. The rain continued to fall, and the more ambitious residents, not to be denied the scene of capture, beddenied the scene of capture gan fitting out their rowboats and var-legated sailing craft ready to hasten to the liner's side immediately she arrived. Shortly after 7.30 o'clock the Montrose pushed her nose through the fog and at 8.15 the pilot boat Eureka set out from shore. She carried a host of newspaper men and photographers and the more fortunate townspeeple who were able to crowd aboard. But Story Told by Another Eye-Witness. Inspector Dew was not among them.
As a precaution he had embarked on the Eureka's small tender, accompa-nied by Chief McCarthy of the Quebec

All wore the garb of pilots and over his florid face Inspector Dew had pulled a pilot's visored cap to hide his features from the man he sought. He did not wish Crippen to recognize him before he could approach and take advantage of the only avenue of escape suicide. Four sallors quickly rowed the tender alongside the Montrose and Dew and his companions stepped on heard.

titis's wrists as a safeguard, even though Crippen made no resistance. He appeared dazed and with a brief remark that he was glad it was all over he walked quietly to the captain's cabin.

Inspector Dew's question, "Are you Dr. Crippen?" was purely perfunctory, for he had recognized his man instantiv. Much Sought Man Standing by the Crippen was standing near the rail talking with Dr. Stuart, the ship's surgeon, and attempting to appear calm. But that he was nervous was calm. But that he was hervous was indicated by his furtive glances and his remark to Dr. Stuart. "There are three pilots coming aboard." he said nervously. "Is not that unusual?" The physician did not reply, but kept his eyes on the strangers, who walked rapidly toward them.

"Crispen. I want you." said Inspec-"Crippen, I want you," sald Inspec-tor Dew, quietly, as he approached.

Fugitive Recoiled at Sight of Officer. The dentist recoiled involuntarily as The dentist recoiled involuntarily as he recognized the man who addressed him, then the blood left his face, his breath came short and fast and he gurglad incoherently. As he was being led away to the captain's cabin, whither he was transferred later to his own staternom, he said gratefully;

"Thank God, the suspense is over and I am glad."

myself.

"'Do you recognize me?" he asked of the girl when she rose to greet him.

"'No.' she raplied bluntly, as the color left her face.

"'Well,' said he. I am a detective of Scotland Yard and I have here a warrant for your arrest on a charge of murder and mutilation of the body of an unknown woman.' He used the same words with which ha had ad-Crippen's arrest accomplished. Dew hurried to Miss Leneve's stateroom, "Well, said he. I am a detective of Scotland Yard and I have here a warrant for your arrest on a charge of mervous breakdown. Her appearance when confronted by the detective and told that she was under arrest was pitiable. All control that she had fought so hard to retain throughout the voyage left her. She cried out hysterically and became so faint that restoratives were administered. She in her room and restored to woman's dress, she was closely guarded as the vessel continued its journey for fear she would take her life or collapse utterly. Crippen Handcuffed in Stateroom.

Cabled Paragraphs

London, July 31.-The Williams drapery store, a large establishment at Accrington caught fire last night from the crossing of electric wires. It was crowded with customers at the time and five women were killed.

Manila, July 31.—Mr. Dickinson, secretary of war, is assisting at the organization of a national society to fight tuberculosis in the Philippines. The disease has been making great inroads among the Filipinos. Secretary Dickinson will leave soon for North Luzon to visit several of the non-Christian tribes in that region.

Berlin, July 31.—Emperor William has invited Marshal Fonseca, president-elect of Brazil, who is now in Germany, to be his guest at the German naval manoeuvres off Kiel at the end of August. Marshal Fonseca, it is announced today, has accepted. After a two weeks' stay in Germany, where the will be entertained by various persons, he expects to go to Paris, returning for the naval manoeuvres. Thence he will go to England.

HENRY JOSEPH WENDLING. MURDERER OF ALMA KELLNER, Starts from San Francisco Tomorro to Face the Charge.

San Francisco, July 31.—Henry Jo-seph Wendling, held here for the mur-der of eight year old Alma Kellner, of Louisville, Ky., will leave in the company of Captain of Detectives Carney next Tuesday to face the charge that rests against him. His confident manner in expressing his desire to face the murder indictment has all the marks of sincerity. He pro-tests his innocence and says that charge does not worry him as much as the thought of meeting his irate brother-in-law. Louis Arnold, whose The news by this time had spread among the passengers, who had been duped throughout the voyage by the bogus clergyman and his effeminate son. Captain Kendail had kept from them the identity of the two mysterious passengers and although the recent bombardment of wireless messages had aroused their suspicions, none on board besides Llewellyn Jones, the wireless operator, knew that the two were Dr. Crippen and his girl companion. wrath, he says, caused him to flee home last January.

Every precaution will be taken by Captain Carney to prevent his prisoner from committing suicide on the train. The entry into Louisville will be secret to avoid any demonstration. ACTOR HENRY MILLER Although neither Crippen nor the

IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Rib Broken and Head and Face admitted any connection with the death of Belle Elmore. Inspector Dew's task was only to point out the fugitives to the Canadian police and after their arrest bring them back to England. Neither he nor the Canadians who made the arrest tried to get Bruised. Stamford, Conn., July 31.—Henry Miller, the actor, received a broken rib and severe bruises in an automobile accident near his home late last night. Mr. Miller was returning to his home when his machine skidded, running into a mail now roost smashing the mato a mail box post, smashing the ma-chine and throwing Mr. Miller out. He landed on his side breaking a rib and bruising his head and face. He was brought to this place and his injuries With the shock of arrest over a stewardess changed the boy's clothing in which the girl had traveled as Crippen's son, for garments more fitted to her sex. Then she collapsed treated and then taken to his home. His injuries, it is understood, will not prove serious.

Five Deaths by Accidental Drowning Reported in Boston. Boaton, July 31.—Five deaths by accidental drowning were reported ted to her sex. Then she collapsed again and lay for more than an hour in her berth, her features contorted and her body shaken with convulsive sobs. In a separate cabin, guarded by a detective, Crippen sat in silence with his chin sunk on his chest. On the deck, near at hand, a group of French and Roumanian immigrants were singing cheerful songs. here today. with his chin sunk on his chest. On the deck, near at hand, a group of French and Roumanian immigrants were singing cheerful songs.

Ship Surgeon's Account of Arrest of the Doctor.

Dr. Stuart, who stood beside the fu-Dr. Stuart, who stood beside the fu-gitive as he was arrested, gave the following account: "I was walking on the promenade deck about 7.30 this morning, when he was trying to win a wager by a long swim and Thomas F. McGrath, aged 9. of Lynn, and Sylvester Sulli-van, aged 45. of Fall River, lost their lives while bathing.

> was able to sit up. Even then her condition was pitiful, and on one saw the vessel at Quebec.

Jewels Found on Crippen, In a belt strapped about Crippen's walst the detectives found five diamond rings and a diamond pin. If it can be proved that these jewels belonged to the prisoner's wife the police think they will have gone far toward establishing their hypothesis of murrer on a firm basis.

Prisoners Reached Quebec This Morn-Quebec, Que. Aug. 1.—The Canadian Pacific liner Montrose, with Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen and Ethel Clare Leneve prisoners aboard, reached Quebec, the end of her journey from Antwerp, shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. Closely guarded the pair was taken from the vessel at 1.35 a. m. First R. I. Vol. Reg.

"When Dew reached the companion-way he turned on Dr. Crippen and LONDON NEWSBOYS

REAPED A HARVEST. Special Editions of Sunday Papers

Containing News of the Arrest. waiting got the first news of Crippen and his companion, Ethel Leneve, through the Associated Press despatches which were received here far ahead of scores of other despatches announcing the dramatic event. These dribbled in from various points from half to two hours later and it was nearly four hours before Scotland Yard received an official message of condeathly pale and there was no resemblance in the huddled up figure, with received a its scanty hair, thin eyebrows and no firmation.

Special editions of the Sunday pa-pars, with the Associated Press des-patch, were issued by the thousands and were eagerly bought up. It is a long time since the newsboys had such a harvest.

Miss Leneve's Mdther Cables a Pathatic Appeal. London, July 31.—Ethel Leneve's relatives tonight are relieved that their long suspense is ended. They have been apprehensive of some untoward fate, and are convinced now that the woman can prove her innocence. Her mother said in an interview that she was certain Crippen had hypnotized her daughter, otherwise she would never have donned boy's clothes. Her fither coually helieves that she was father equally believes that she was the dupe of Crippen.

It is suggested here that Crippen may claim American citizenship as a means of delaying the course of jus-Mrs. Leneve cabled a pathetic appeal to her daughter today imploring her to tell the police everything and not to allow her affection for Crippen to stand in the way of her duty to herself and to her family. The cable concludes:

"Be brave, little girl, and have no fear; we are confident of your inno-

FATHER OF DR. CRIPPEN Doubts That His Son Committed the Awful Crime.

Airship Trip Across the Atlantic

OBJECTIVE POINT OF THE AMER-ICA WILL BE LONDON.

WILL CARRY 4 TONS OF FUEL

An Unsinkable Lifeboat to be Taker Along-The Big Dirigible to Arrive on the Oceanic Wednesday.

New York, July 31.—Melvin Vaniman, aviator and mechanical engineer, returned to this country today on the French liner La Touraine full of confidence in the flight across the Atlantic which he proposes to undertake with Walter Wellman in their dirigible airship America. Mr. Wellman met him at the pier and both left immediately for Atlantic City to make ready for housing the America, which is to arrive here on Wednesday by the White Star liner Occanic. Star liner Oceanic.

Will Carry Wireless Operator. "The American will carry an un-nkable lifeboat on her voyage," said

Mr. Vaniman. "Mr. Wellman and myself will carry two machanicians whom I have brought over with me from France, a wireless operator and one other man not yet

"The wireless operator will supply ews of the voyage to the New York news of the voyage to the New York Times, the Chicago Record-Herald and the London Daily Telegraph, none of which, however, stand back of the en-terprise otherwise than as customers for whatever of interest it may have to tell.

Crossing the Atlantic we shall try keep at a level of about 300 feet to keep at a level of about 300 feet above the water. In case of any acciabove the water. In case of any accident short of a disaster we ought to have no trouble, equipped as we shall be with wireless, in getting into touch with one of the many trans-Atlantic liners. For fuel we shall carry four tons of gasoline.

"It is necessary to start from Atlantic City because only there could we find a balloon shed big enough to receive the America, but, conditions permitting, we shall try to fly over New York on our way out to sea. Our objective point will be London,"

TEXAS STATE RANGERS AND MEXICANS FIGHT.

Persons Killed and Two Wounded at San Benito.

Tex., July 31 .- Three persons were killed and two others wounded in a fight between Texas state rangers and Mexicans at San Benito late last night. The dead are Deputy Sheriff Henry Lawrence. Ranger Carnes, Anastacio Trevino, a Mexican. The officers were being guided to the hiding place of the assailants of Vernicing Processing The officers were being guided to the hiding place of the assallants of Engineer Donnin of the San Benifo water works, who was murdered at a dance a month ago, when they were shot from ambush. The Brownsville Rifles have been ordered to the scene.

BENEFIT CONCERT.

Mystic Singers Assist Fraehlichkeit Society-Good Sum for Director Muenzel.

the efficient musical director of the Froeblichkeit society, who is now ill, a her except the ship surgeon and the stewardess At times her means could be heard in the passageway outside her cabin. After satisfying themselves that there was no weapon in her room, the officers did not return until she was instructed to prepare for leaving the vessel at Quebec.

The efficient musical director of the Froehichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society, who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society. Who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society. Who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society. Who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society. Who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society. Who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society who is now ill, a sacred concert was given in Prochlichkeit society. When ill was a sacred concert was given in Prochlich enjoyable programme, which was as Electric Vissard March, Baker's Orchestra.

Waldesrauschen, R. Kri
Froehlichkeit Singing Society. R. Kramer Tenor solo, The Holy City, S. Adams
A. H. Ousley.

Frushling am Rhein. Waldmorgen, Koell Mystic Maennerchor Members.

Sonntag-Quartette, Christian Doetsch, Oscar and Adam Heinrich, Martin Krauss. M. Muenzel Baker's Orchestra.

Part II. First R. L Vol. Regt. March, H. Muenzel Baker's Orchestra. Eine fidele Gerichtssitzung, R. Heinze

Nicholas Heigl, Joseph Perringer, John Rogier, Maenner Quartette, Mystic.
Im Kastanicnhain—Duet, J. Schabt
H Muenzel

Selection,
Olympic Quartette.
Dein Aug, Mein Stern,
J. Ringelmann Froehlichkeit Singing Society. Canzonella Felice.

Baker's Orchestra. The concert began at 3.45 and ended about 6.

An especially pleasing feature was the singing of the members of the Mystic Maennercher, who came up to the number of nine, accompanied by their director, Henry Wyer.

A good sized sum was presented to Mr. Muenzel, the result of the concert, the magazing of which was due to this the success of which was due to this committee; Joseph Peringer, Nicholas Heigl, Frank Kleindieust and Gustaf Thumm and Robert Gley

BACK FROM FORT MANSFIELD. Local Companies Reached Here by Noon Saturday-Baggage Detail

The members of the Third and Fifth companies, C. A. C. C. N. G., with the Thirteenth company of Danielson, reached this city on the return from their annual tour of duty at Fort Mansfield, Napatree Point, on Saturday morning at 11.45 o'clock by way of the Norwich and Westerly trolley. The baggage detail, including Lieutenants Eaton of the Thirteenth, Church of the Third and Nichols of the Fifth compa-Third and Nichols of the Fifth compa-nies, with eight men from each com-pany, arrived in the harbor by lighter at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, having left the fort at 8 o'clock in the morn-the three companies breakfasted at 4.30, the tents were dropped at 5, and at 6 the baggings was placed on the lighter. The companies left Watch

Bloody Race Riot In Texas Town

PERHAPS TWENTY UNARMED NEGROES KILLED BY MOB.

FIERCE MAN HUNT IN WOODS

Story Told by Sheriff Black Who Was on Duty Twenty-Four Hours in the Disturbed District.

Palestine, Tex., July 31.—At least diffeen, perhaps twenty negroes all of them probably unarmed, were hunted down and killed by a mob of from two to three hundred men in the Slocum and Denison Springs neighborhood of Palestine last night and yesterday, ac-cording to Sheriff Black, who returned early this morning, after twenty-four hours in that district. He told of a fleree man hunt in the woods, of hul-let riddled bodies found on lonely roads, and of the terror among the inhabitants in the southeastern part of Anderson county.

Sheriff Black says his estimate of the dead is conservative. He made a careful investigation, and, telling of its results added. its results, added;
"We won't find some of the bodies until the location is revealed to us by Hunted Down Without Any Real Cause.

"I found the greatest excitement pre vailing throughout that section of the country," continued the sheriff, "Men were going about and killing negroes as fast as they could find them, and so far as I was able to ascertain, without any real cause. Those negroes have done no wrong that I could discover Those representations of the could be a second that I could discover Those representations are the could be a second to the course the course that I could discover the course the cover. There was just a hot headed gang hunting them down and killing

"We found eleven bodies, but from what I have head the dead must number fifteen or twenty. We came across four bodies in one house on a marsh between Denison Springs and 300 Men in the Mob. "I don't know how many there were in the mob, but I think there must have been 200 or 300. Some of them cut the telephone wires.

"Where we found the four dead bodies, one nexro had been killed the night hefore. Three nexroes we've sit-ting up with the remains, one of them being an old and white haired negro These three were killed where they Negroes Believed to Be Unarmed. "So far as I can learn, the negroes were not armed. I seat two deputies out through the county to collect all the arms they could find in the houses of the negroes. They made a thorough search of the houses, but found only nine single-barreled shotguns, none of which seems to have been fired lately, and about thirty shells, all loaded with small shot.

Cause of the Trouble. "I am led to believe that the trouble issory note. R. Alford, a white man who is a cripple, had gone on a ne-gro's note. The note came due and he got after the negro to renew it or to pay it, or something of the kind, and the negro refused and cursed him. Incident caused bad feeling.

This negro was killed, and then they went to killing them all over the county. They hunted the negroes down like sheep."

AND OVERTURNED. Three Residents of Naugatuck Severely Cut and Bruised.

New Haven, Conn., July 31.—Miss Mabel Jackman of 116 Main street. Naugatuck, was severely injured, and Henry Cline and his wife of the same place were cut and bruised when an automobile driven by Cline skidded and overturned as he was driving through Woodbridge today. When the machine skidded Cline attempted to turn into the road and the machine upset, pinning Cline underneath and throwing Miss Jackman out on to the road, where she struck on her head, causing concussion of the brain. Mrs. Cline was also thrown out, but with Mr. Cline received only slight cuts and Cline received only slight cuts and bruises. Mes fackman was taken to a local hospital, where it is said that she

SEVERELY BITTEN ON HAND

BY RATTLESNAKE.

Clarence R. Halter Attempted to Take Snake from Box.

Stratford Conn., July 31.—While attempting to pick up a tattlesnake here today Clarence R. Halter, connected with the University of the City of New York, was severely bitten on the hand, and after being treated by a local physician was taken immediately to a hospital in New York. Halter came here today for the purpose of securing the snakes from W. B. Tuttle, a local druggist, and was in a yard in the rear of the store examining the reptiles, and in attempting to take one from a box

Of Augusta, and slight injury to sixteen passengers.

Engineer Taylor and Fireman Dunbar went down with the engine, and wore caught under the tender. Both bodies are still in the wreckage. Mail tilerable injured. None of the passengers were caught under the tender. Both bodies are still in the wreckage. Mail tilerable injured. None of the passengers were injured. None of the passengers were caught under the tender. Both bodies are still in the wreckage. Mail tilerable injured. None of the passengers.

OBITUARY.

John G. Carlisle.

New York, July 31.—John G. Carlisle, former secretary of the treasury, who had been critically ill for the past two days, died at his apartments in New York at 10.50 o'clock tonight of heart in attempting to take one from a box the shake struck, sinking its fangs into Halter's hand. A physician was sum-moned and after first aid had been given Halter was taken to New York city for further treatment.

Cleveland, O., July 31.—John D. Rockefeller delivered a homily on "Forgiveness" today before the Euclid avenue Baptist church Sunday school. At the close of his address he presented the newspaper reporters who were present with morocco bound conies of "The Optimist's Good Morning," a book of essays on morals which Mr. Rockefeller believes is one of the greatest litrary works in existence.

WEDDING.

In St. Patrick's church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy united in marriage Joseph Manuel Conceleao and Miss Maria Julia Lopez. The best man was Frank Silvia and the bridesmaid was Miss Amelia Andresw. Quite a number of people were in the clurch. The left the fort at 8 o'clock in the morning.

The soldiers, one and all, appeared in splendid physical condition as a result of their ten days at camp. Reveille sounded at 4 o'clock Saturday morning, the three companies breakfasted at at 4.30, the tents were dropped at 5, and

There was large movement of freight on the Central Vermont road

Condensed Telegrams

Rear Admiral Schroeder recommends covernment control of all wireless plants.

Henry Krintz, Aged 75 Years, mar-

Gertrude Monsen, pellegra patient at Georgetown university hospital, is

The American Colony in Heidelberg, Mark Twain, A New National Forest has been

he Eldorado. Pope Piux X. will confer honors on several distinguished Catholics in the United States.

Fire Destroyed the Shops of the & Northwestern raffway at

The Engagement Is Announced of the daughter of Ambassador Kerens to George B. Colket of Philadelphia.

The National Currency Association, of New York, was organized by twen-ty-seven national banks of that city. Joelin, Mo., Has Had an Epidemic

f plomaine poisoning, 102 cases hav-ig been reported in the last sever Minor Disorders Continue at varithe situation continues practically unon the Grand Trunk,

The Damage to the Crops in France from the continued wet and cold weather is unofficially estimated at $490,080,080.

George Cole Shot and Killed Mrs Edward Hefinger, wounded Mrs. Dorz Sirowl-Wilson and then shot himself in a rooming house in Toledo, Ohio.

According to the Census Bureau, btedness of all cities in the country caving a population of more than 30

The Extensive Forest Fires which fraught with danger and the national' forest officials are watching the re-serves closely. Among the Passengers on Board the Royal Mall steamer Tagus, which has arrived at Kingston. Jamaica, are President Pedro Montt of Chill, and his party, who are proceeding to the Inited States and Canada. Complaint Was Made to the Interstate commerce commission by the Western Stoneways company of Mon-Ill., against the Illinois Cen tral Railroad company and seevral other carriers of the present classifi-cation of jugware or stoneware.

ILL FEELING BETWEEN THEM FOR A LONG TIME. New Haven Italian Shot and Instantly Killed a Countryman. New Haven, Conn., July 31 .- Following a quarrel, Pancott Nazzareno to-night shot and instantly killed Plepio led up to the fight is not known, but it is understood that there had been lifeeling between the two for a long time. When they separated one went around one side of the house and the second man around the other meeting in front, when Nazztreno pulled a revolver and shot bis victim twice over the heart, killing him instantly. After firing a third shot, which missed its mark, the murderer fied down the railroad tracks in the rear of the house and up to a late hour had not been apprehended.

The murdered man was 45 years old and is helleved to have a wife living in Italy. Nazzareno is 21 years old and tumbered.

PASSENGER TRAIN RAN INTO BURNING TRESTLE

Charleston and Western Carolina Road Augusta Ga., July 31,—Passenger train No. 2, of the Charleston and Western Carolina railroad ran into a burning trestle about a mile and a half from Woodiawn S. C., today, re-sulting in the total destruction of the train, the death of Engineer Hank

Augusta, and slight injury to six-

Taylor and Fireman Dunbar, colored former secretary of the treasury, who had been critically ill for the past two days, died at his apartments in New York at 10.50 o'clock tonight of heart fallure, accompanied by oedema of the ungs. An intestinal complaint of long standing which were down his vital-ity, lay behind the technical fact of heart failure. He was attacked by the same trouble, complicated by an all-ment of the kidneys, last spring, and for a time hovered near death. But for a time hovered near death. But his remarkable vitality triumphed then as it seemed it might even in the lil-ness which ended tonight.

John Griffin Carlisle was born in Kenton county, Ky., on September 5, 1835. He was educated in the public schools, later studied law and was admitted to the bar. Always a consistent democrat, and interested in public affairs as a young man, he rose from the Kentucky house of represenfrom the Kentucky house of represen-tatives to the state senate, became a delegate-at-large to the democratic national convention served as lieuten-ant governor and finally graduated in-to national life.

From 1877 to 1896 he was a mem-ber of the national house and from 1883 to 1889 was speaker of the house. He resigned to fill the unexpired term

He resigned to fill the unexpired term of James B. Beck in the United States senate from which he again resigned in 1891 to become secretary of the

With the retirement from power,

Hail Hurts Suffield Tobacco Crop. Suffield, Conn., July 31.—It is esti-mated that the hallstorm that passed over here resterday did $49,000 damage on Sunday. Six trains went north to the tobacco crop. The damage ex-from New London during the morning. tends over a strip three miles long. There was one large south bound train. and a mile wide.

Forces of Madriz Abandon Acoyapa

TO GENERAL MENA, THE PRO-VISIONAL COMMANDER.

DISASTROUS DEFEAT FRIDAY

Of the Nicaraguan Troops-Fifty Prisoners, Hotchkiss Guns, Rapid Fireers and 100,000 Rounds Ammuition Taken

Bluefields, Nicaragua, July 31.—General Vasquez, commander in chief of the Nicaraguan forces, has abandoned Acoyapa to General Mena, the provisional commander, who has occupied a strong position before the town for some time past. Vasquez burned the houses containing stores and ammunition. This may by the Madrix comtion. This move by the Madriz com-mander was caused by the news of the disastrous defeat of General Lara by Moncado on July 29.

Nicaraguan General Wounded In this engagement, after ten hours fighting, according to reports received here, the Madriz forces fied in disorder, leaving fifty prisoners, three Hotchkiss guns, six rapid firers and 100,000 rounds of ammunition. It is reported also that General Lara was wounded and that General Moncado is in pursuit.

POSSES SCOURING THE WOODS FOR AN ALABAMA NEGRO Criminally Assaulted Wife of J. O. Gibson.

Mobile, Aia., July $1.-Many posses have been scouring the woods around Axis, Ala., 18 miles from Mobile, since early this morning for Bill Walker, a negro, who criminally assaulted Mrs. Nettle Gibson, the young wife of J. D. Gibson, superintendent of a truck

The negro told Mrs. Gibson a friend was dead and that he had been sent o accompany her to the house where the was wanted to help prepare the body. Proceedings a few hundred feet from the Gibson home, the negro be-gan using his knife and later accom-plished his purpose. The woman is badly cut. Her eight year old brothbadly cut. Her eight year old brother, Clarence Howell, hearing her screams, ran to the scene and tried to protect his sister. Clarence Howell was also cut by the black. Walker, after forcing Mrs. Gibson to give him what money she had, left for the home of Jesse Brown, another negro.

He slipped up to Brown's window, and shot him while he was asleep. Walker then forced Brown's wife, Katle, to accompany him. Walker and tie, to accompany him. Walker and Katie Brown have not been found. Citizens of the community say that the law will not be needed if Walker is caught. Mrs. Gibson and her brother are not fatally cut, but Brown will

THE GREATEST RAILROAD STRUCTURE IN THE WORLD Will Be Formally Opened in New York

This Afternoon. Maracoli and then made good his es-cape. The murdered man lived at 34 Portises street and tonight called on Nazzareno at the latter's boarding place 21 Silver street, and the two quarreled out in the back yard. What led up to the fight is not known but it

A bronze statue of Alexander J. Cas-satt, late president of the Pennsylvania railroad, will be unveiled and presented to President McCrea as the head of the MOTORED OVER TO WORCESTER. President Taft Took 150 Mile Auto Ride Sunday.

Beverly, Mass., July 31.—President Taft had his longest automobile ride today. Starting out a little after 10 o'clock this morning, he motored over to Worcester, in the interior of the state, and proceeded from there to the little village of Millbury, Mass., where he attended a sort of family reunion at the home of Aunt Delia Torrey. Returning to Beverly at 7.40 o'clock tonight, the speedometer on the car showed a total mileage for the day of a fraction over 150. Mr. Taft was fired and dusty, but he thoroughly enjoyed the outing. the outing.

Death of Congressman Charles Q. Tir-

Natick, Mass., July 31.—Congress-man Charles Q. Tirreil of the Fourth Massachusetts district died suddenly today at his home here. Death was due to a hemorrhage of the brain and came while the congressman was un-conscious. He was 65 years old and leaves his wife and one son.

Cance Upset, Chauffeur Drowned. Winsted, Conn., July 21.—Ernest Marsland of New Rochelle, N. Y., a chauffeur for I. W. Boone of Dallas, Tex., was drowned while canoeing of Highland lake tonight. Marsland went out in the cance alone and when about forty feet from shore it upset. By the time aid reached him and he had been brought ashore life was extinct. He was 20 years old and leaves a mother and brother.

Naugatuck, Conn., July 31.—James Gibbons, 50 years old, fell from the second story back porch of his home on Church street here tonight and was instantly killed, his skull being frac-tured. He leaves his wife.

Washington, July 31.—The sixth in-ternational congress of Esperanto will be in session here during the entire work beginning Aug. 14. This will be the first time that the congress has met In the western hemisphere, its five pre-vious meetings having been in Europe.

Boy Drowned in Connecticut River. Newtown, Conn., July 31.-Word was ator Michael J. Houlthan that his son John had drowned in the Connecticut river at Northampton, Mass., Joday. The boy was 19 years old and employed

E. F. Atkins Was Elected President of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, succeeding George Westinghouse, at a meeting of the directors in New York.